

Events in Langley

TOURISM LANGLEY

Events— March 20 to 28, 2008

SPRING BREAK AT THE FORT

Saturday March 15 to 23, 2008 10:00am - 5:00pm

It's spring! Time to get your hands dirty in the sands of time at Fort Langley. Celebrate 150 years of British Columbia in our Big House, where BC was 'born'. We're offering guided tours everyday with special tours just for kids at 10:30 am and 2:30 pm. Listen to a storyteller weave a tale at 2:00 pm daily, then participate in a Fur Trade Wedding at 3:00 pm. Bring a picnic lunch and stay the whole day!

Cadet Appreciation Week at the Canadian Museum of Flight

March 16 - 23

All Air cadets, Army cadets and Sea Cadets are welcome to the Canadian Museum of Flight, Langley Regional Airport, FREE from March 16 to March 23. Uniforms must be worn. Canadian Museum of Flight is open from 10:00am to 4:00pm.

Langley Chiefs Hockey

March 25 and 26th – 7:00 pm

Coastal Conference Playoffs

The Langley Chiefs play at the George Preston Recreation Centre on home ice.

Location: 20699 42 Ave., Langley

Tickets: $12 General Admission; $10 Students & Seniors; $7

Children under 12. Tickets: 604-532-1999

Candlelight Tours

Saturday March 29, 2008 5:00pm - 9:00pm

Find yourself taken back to November 19, 1858. It is the day of BC's Proclamation and the fort is full of excitement and commotion. Share in the anticipation by helping the fort get ready for this historic event. Experience the stories of this momentous occasion with a series of colourful vignettes as you make your way around the fort. For tickets and information please call 604-888-4956.

Hosted by the Friends of Fort Langley nonprofit organization.

Tourism Langley

Langley hosts many interesting and exciting events through out the year. To have your events listed, please send a word document with your event to kristina@explorelangley.com.

Tourism Langley
9234 Glover Road
P.O. Box 215,
Fort Langley, BC V1M 2R5

604-888-1477

info@explorelangley.com